"Never falls the night so dark that the Horizon cannot be seen if we but take the trouble to look, be assured that light is not wholly gone."

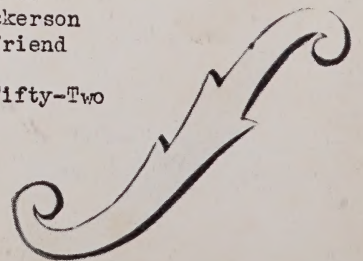

D E D I C A T I O N

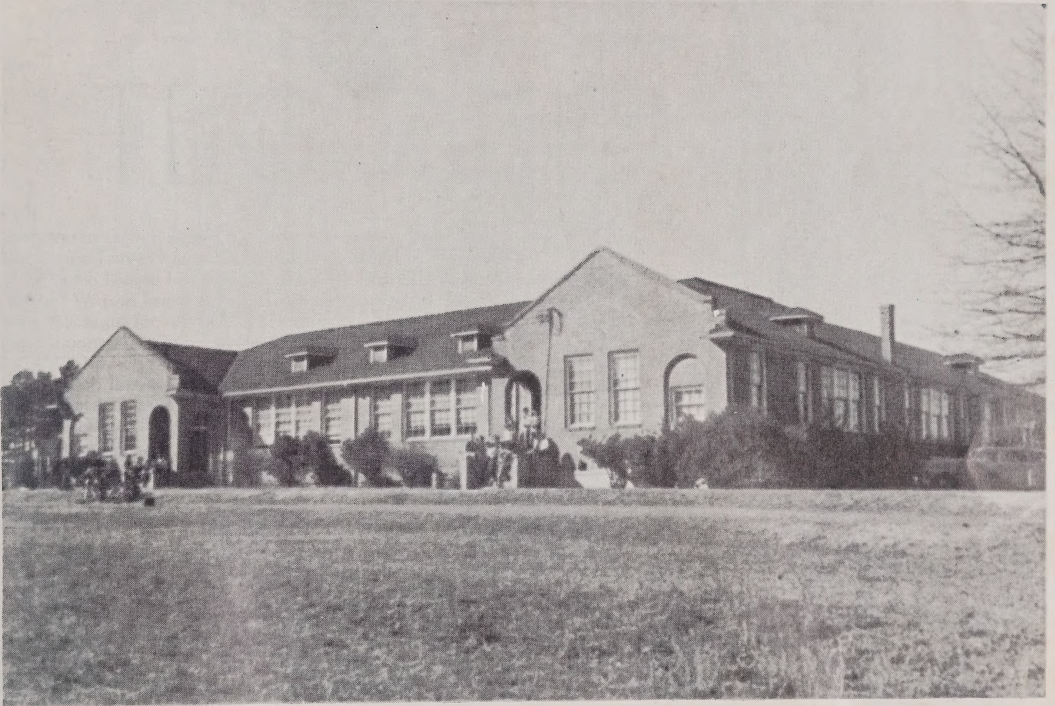

In appreciation of the twenty-three years of loving service she has rendered to our school, this second volume of

The Horizon is dedicated to
Mrs. Bailey H. Dickerson
our teacher and friend by the Class of Nineteen Fifty-Two

Our School

LONG MAY SHE STAND

Yes, long, long may she stand.
Forever tall and proud and grand.
For other feet to tread, and other minds to delve
Her beloved halls and her book-filled shelves,
Treat her kindly you who follow.
Uphold her honor and say we're glad.
She sheltered us through tender years.
Saw our laughter and our tears.
To you we leave her hallowed walls.
With hearts grown sad.
Love her well and you will learn
That the memories she gives you will ever burn.
To lighten your heart amid' st life's tears.
And ne'er depart through all your years.

Fair, firm, and understanding our principal stands very high in opinion of every one of his students, both past and present. Will we ever forget our years of Math, Algebra, World History, and U.S. History, made a little easier for each of us to grasp because we were taught by a Master.

Mrs. Vera C. Dawes

English 1,2,3,4
Biology 1,2
Literature 1,2,3,4
Dramatics 3,4

For three years, Mrs. Dawes has been with us here at Hurdle Mills. Besides teaching us our Grammar and other Essential subjects, she has tried valiently to instill in us some of the admirable characteristics we will need in later life. Each of us will be a better person for having known her. I feel sure.

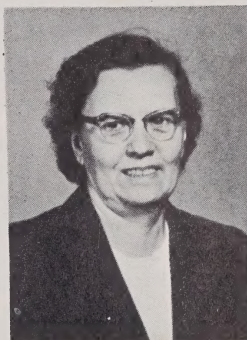

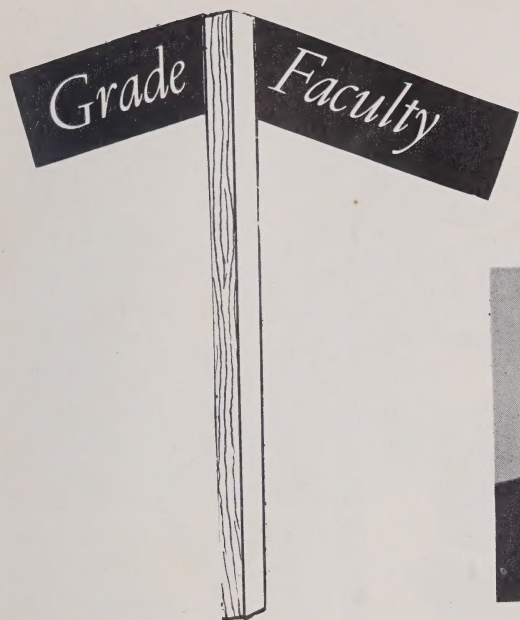

Mr. Harry Jenkins

History 1

His friendly, helpfulness and concientious effort to make our work as pleasant as possible has endeared Mr. Jenkins to us one and all. His manner seems to say "I am one of you," and he is our friend as well as our guide and teacher. We hope that his two years record at Hurdle Mills High marks only the beginning of his stay here.

SENIORS

Anne Evington Long

Athletics, 3,4 Dramatics, 3,4
Piano, 1,2 Annual Staff, 4
English Club, 1 Student Council, 4
Class Officer, 3,4 Home Ec., 1
Height, 5'4½"; Weight, 108; Eyes, Blue; Hair, Blonde;

Anne is one of the original members of the class of '52. She is a sweet, demure girl, but full of laughter fun-loving as well. Heart interests, she has none, so far, but the future holds unheard of treasures for our "smile girl", or so we believe; and not only in the annals of romance.

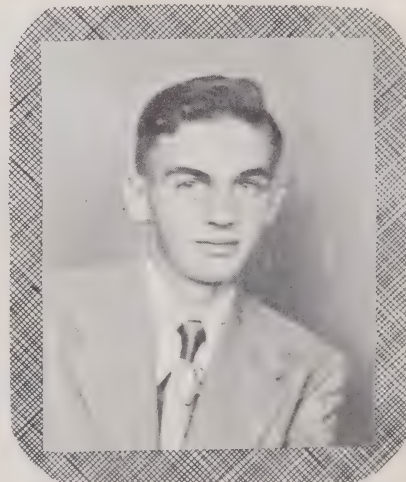

"I can live two months on a good compliment."

Douglas Randall Rimmer

Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Dramatics, 3,4
English Club, 1 Annual Staff, 4
Class Officer, 4
Height, 6'3" Weight, 142 Eyes, Green Hair, Brown

Randall joined us in the first grade and has kept up the pace ever since. One look at him and you can tell he is everyone's friend. He is popular with girls and boys alike, and is captain of the basketball team. His plans for the future remain a mystery, but the class has a good idea what they are, since he is very sweet on a certain Jr.

"Show me a company of tall men, and I will show you a company of wise, honest, and fearless men."

David Daniel Hawkins

Athletics, 3,4 Dramatics, 3
4-H, 2,3 Annual Staff, 4
English Club, 1 Class Officer, 4
Height, 5'7" Weight, 128 Eyes, Blue Hair, Brown

Dan threw in his lot with our class on the first day we went to school. Trustworthy and dependable, no matter what he is asked to do, his good looks would have made him a regular Casanova except for a shyness which makes the girls chase him all the harder. We will never forget Dan, for his cheerful smile has made him a favorite with us from the very first.

"That best portion of a good person's life, his little nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love."

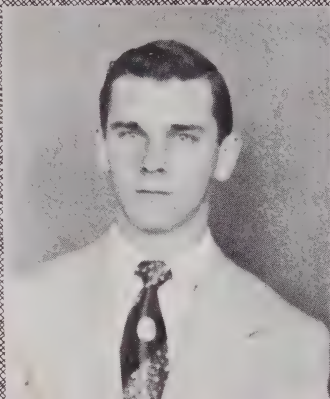

Curtis Warren Clayton

Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Dramatics, 3
English Club, 1 Annual Staff, 4
Height, 5'11" Weight, 155 Eyes, Blue Hair, Brown

We welcomed Curtis to our class in the fourth grade of school, and accepted him as one of our own. He is always up to his neck in trouble, both inside and outside of classes, but somehow he has pulled through to here to get his diploma. He is very bashful around some girls, but a certian one seems to appeal to his taste. To us Curtis doesn't need plans for the future because it seems he can always ramble on and everything comes out alright.

"Monotony is the awful reward of the careful." -Buckham-

Robert Thomas Hawkins

Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Dramatics, 3
English Club, 1
Height, 5'6" Weight, 118 Eyes, Green Hair, Brown

Bobby has been with us from the first, and has been known for his honesty, friendliness, and willingness to help anyone he can ever since the first day of school. His teasing becomes nerve-wracking at times, but we all know that underneath he has the warmest and biggest heart in all Hurdle Mills High.

"It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life that no one can sincerely try to help another without helping himself."

-Emerson-

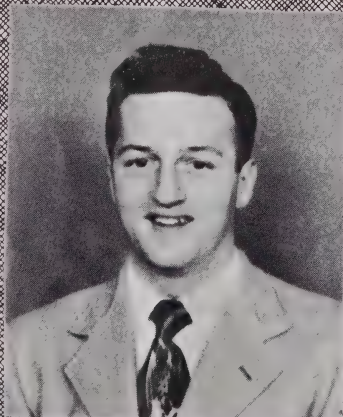

James Blalock Jones

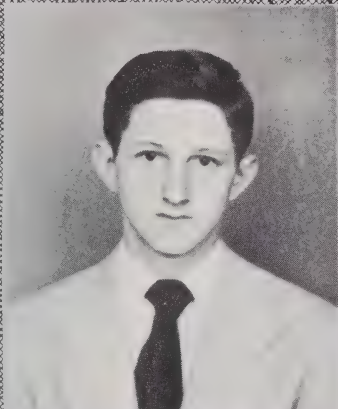

Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Dramatics, 3
Pres. Student Council, 4 English Club, 1
Annual Staff, 4

Height, 5'9½" Weight, 133 Eyes, Brown Hair, Brown

James has been with us only 3 years. That has been time enough to learn that he is serious, capable, ambitious and a loyal friend, which along with a fine sense of humor makes an unbeatable combination. He is genuinely admired by all who know him.

"His inheritance of wisdom and wit is as bright as the diamond, his birthstone."

John Paul Jones

Dramatics, 3 English Club, 1
Annual Staff, 4 Commercial Work, 3,4
4-H, 1, 2
Height, 5'7" Weight, 118 Eyes, Brown Hair, Brown

Johnnie is another of our original members and in these 12 years, we have come to expect the best jokes and the most laughs from him. Will any of us ever forget his reading of "The Cremation of Sam McGee" during our Freshman year? He can be serious at the right moment too as shown by his outstanding record in typing. Without our ace comedian and beloved "Admiral" the class of '52 would be truly lost.

"The ultimate test of the laughing instinct is that a man be always ready to laugh at himself". -Bradford-

Annette Burch Pugh

Pen and Scroll Club, 4 Dramatics, 3,4
Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Marshall, 1,3
Horizon Editor, 4 Class Officer, 1,2
English Club, 1 Home Ec., 1
Height, 5'4" Weight, 130 Eyes, Green Hair, Blonde

Annette has been with us from the very start. She has always been at the head of the class in everything that came along. She was a natural leader and just naturally took over the position of class leader. In her lessons she learns easy and helps the others. The last year of school, this year, she was elected Editor of the Annual. When it came to boys, it seems as if she is doing as good as any one, because she is already engaged to a nice looking boy.

"Nothing is impossible when your hearts in there fighting."

Leamon David Slaughter

English Club, 1 4-H, 1,2,3
Business and Commercial Work, 3,4
Height, 6'1" Weight, 155 Eyes, Blue Hair, Brown

L. D. didn't have the doubtful pleasure of being with us in our first year of school, but he came along from Allensville to join us in the second. He has always been right in there trying when it came to lessons, but the lessons of a friendly smile and helping hand have always come easy to him. With girls, he was a little bashful at first, but it has been noticed by all that he is doing fine now. For later life he will probably settle down to farming somewhere around the Bushy Fork Community.

"Lowliness is the base of every virtue and he who goes the lowest builds the safest."

Libby Lee Terry

Dramatics, 3,4	Home Ec., 1
Class Officer, 4	4-H, 1,2
English Club, 1	Annual Staff, 4
Pen and Scroll Club, 4	Athletics, 3,4

Height, 5'4" Weight, 110 Eyes, Blue Hair, Black

Another of the charter members, Libby has more zest for living, more ambition, and gets more good, clean fun out of life than any three people we know. She has a friendly smile for everyone, and her great popularity shows. She is so cheerful and good about doing favors for teachers and classmates alike that we sometimes impose on her, but you won't hear "Lib" grumbling. If she has a motto, it must be, "Service, that is my greatest aim."

"The most completely lost of all days is one in which we have not laughed."

William Robert Huff

Athletics, 1,2,3,4	Dramatics, 3
Marshall, 3	4-H, 1,2,3,4
English Club, 1	Student Council, 4
Pen and Scroll Club, 4	Class Officer, 4

Height 5'9" Weight, 145 Eyes, Brown, Hair Red,

Billy started with us in the first and has a record in his studies even Einstien would be proud of. He is serious minded with a huge brain for business matters, especially money and figures. Looking forward to 4 years of college, his great ambition is to become a school teacher. We think he'll be one of the best.

"I speak truth, not so much as I would, but so much as I dare; and I dare a little more as I grow older." -Montaigne-

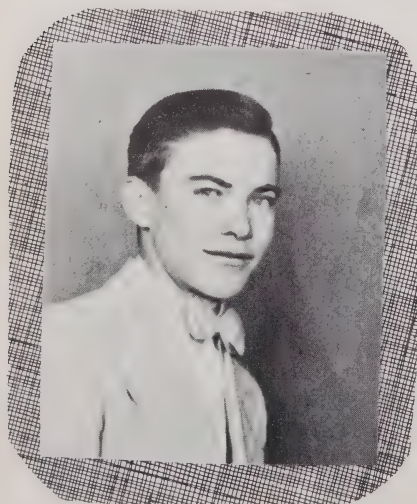

Russell Laws Breeze

Athletics, 1,2,3,4,	Dramatics, 3
English Club, 1	Annual Staff, 4

Height, 5'7" Weight, 130 Eyes, Green Hair, Brown

Russell joined us in the first grade and even without his many other fine qualities, his fine sense of fair play and sportsmanship in athletics would show us that he has good character. His sense of humor leans toward the ridiculous, but if you can get him to be serious for a few minutes, you will find that he is level-headed and hard working, and a very valuable friend.

"Youth is always too serious, and just now, it is too serious about frivolity." -Chesterson

Ruby Dickerson Whitfield

Athletics, 1,2,3,4 Dramatics, 3,4
 Marshall, 3 Home Ec., 1,4
 English Club, 1 4-H, 1,2
 Class Officer, 3 Annual Staff, 4
 Height, 5'6":Weight, 140:Hair, Brown:Eyes, Brown

Ruby joined our class in the fourth grade, and has become so well-loved and a dear friend that we all feel as if we had known her all our lives. She decided in Sept. of 1951 that she could combine housework and school work to an advantage for both herself and her husband, so she married Kelly Whitfield, Jr. Quiet and serious with deep thoughts behind her laughing eyes, she is a friend to all.

"Along the cool, sequestered vale of life they keep the noiseless tenor of their way."

A Tribute

To two former members of the class of '52 Dewey Lane Moore and Coleman Hughes Rimmer who joined the "Boys In Blue" when they found out Uncle Sam needed them. We'll never forget you, boys, and we hope fervantly that your stay in the U. S. Air Force will be pleasant and beneficial, and that you will come home safely from your adventures into "The Wild Blue Yonder."

History

Even as far back as the first grade when Mrs. Dickerson struggled to teach us our A B C's the Senior Class had stage fever. We presented two major performances that year plus numerous performances of our "Rhythem Band".

Learning to know and love and get along with each other, we passed our grade school years without event.

When we became Freshmen, there were 16 of us, each known by a nick name and famous for his own peculiar character trait. Our home room teacher was Miss Margaret Rice.

As Sophomores we welcomed a new teacher, Mrs. R. B. Dawes who immediately began the long, hard, thankless, often almost hopeless, task of making us into the dignified and mature Seniors that we are today.

We experienced that once in a life time thrill of getting our class rings. Another big event was Banquet night.

Then our goal came in sight. We started Senior year. First off, Anne entertained at a birthday party, we gave ourselves a wiener roast, next, and then, the first thing we knew the class of '52 was giving a shower. Our own Ruby Dickerson had up and married a fine boy and became Mrs. Kelly Whitfield Jr. But she kept on to school, so there were no drastic changes. Then Dewey Moore joined the Air Force at about the same time that Arthur Terry decided a married man should go out and get a job and make himself a living.

Now, we face that great day in May saddened by the realization that all too soon, the class of '52 will be only a memory. No more speed tests, no more literary discussions, no more joking, living, and laughing away the greater part of every day with each other. But, is our class to be just a memory? Oh, no, someday, when all of us have gone our separate ways to lives so individual that we do not even cross each other's paths. We'll hear a familiar name and sit up and say "Oh yes, I remember Old "Lefty", he was in my class at school, why, I remember one day he"-----." And suddenly we'll be back in 9:30 typing class surrounded by familiar, beloved faces. We will even be able to see the sunlight streaming in the East windows and hear some one say, "Pull that shade down, you Goof!"

"No, the real class of '52
Well never be disbanded for each to go his separate way
But in 1982 will be a class as today.

Prophecy

Who is this I see in a ten-gallon hat and the loudest shirt in Texas? Of course, Randall's feet drag the ground under that pony but what's the difference? He's a cowboy at last!

Why L.D.! We always wondered if you were as quiet as you acted. What's this I see? A party of celebrities at the Waldorf-Astoria and Mr. Slaughter is acting the host in honor of the success of his last play. Move over Shakespeare, our boy is here to stay.

Well, James, I hardly knew you behind that big desk and bigger cigar but it must be you, 'Cause look at that Anne-gelic picture on the desk.

And speaking of angels, that's what Anne is to those young soldiers at John Hopkins Hospital nowadays. How's the world of nursing Anne?

We thought you'd surprise us someday Curtis. But we all agree that Hamlet played by Curtis was much better than Lawrence Oliver's performance.. Our boy's in the movies now and anyone who doesn't agree he's tops, had better smile when they say so.

Now, I see a newsreel and who's the handsome pilot? Hero of the big rescue party in the news! We didn't know you could smile like that Russell. Just shows what a camera will do for you.

And look who brought disgrace down on the heads of the Class of '52. A bachelor no less! I'll bet he has nightmares about all those hearts he's broken. There must be easier ways of keeping your freedom Dan.

Who's mansion on the hill? Oh that's an old friend of ours. They have two cute children, Kelly III and Edna. What did Kelly do Ruby? rob a bank or something?

Libby and Archie have just left for Bermuda. What do they care if they had to hire a crew of nurses to look after those kids. Must be wonderful, having money to burn like that.

A huge ship sails by, I make out the words "USS Patsy Anne" on the side of it. John Paul Jones, not being one to dissappoint folks by not living up to his name is striding the fore-deck in an admiral's uniform.

Now I see the byline "By Annette Pugh" with a featured article in the New York "Star". That's fine Annette but really now, that boyish haircut you're sporting! Just goes to show how things we do in high school can follow us through life.

Bobby still likes to drive and he's getting his part of it now in the Midget Auto Races. Can't you get that kiss from S. W., the famous movie star, in any easier way than by winning the Annapolis 500, Bobby?

Billy seems to be doing pretty good with that old pigskin. Must be because he's been on feeding terms with hogs all his life. Oh! pardon me. I forgot I was speaking of U.N.C. star football fullback.

In Memory

...of Lowell Thomas
McCulloch, killed December 2,
1951 in a highway accident.

O, Little Shoes

O little shoes with the
scuffed-up toes,
That look so small in
his father's hand,
Weren't you proud and big and grand
When you started this morning for
No-One-Knows?

Now dusk has come and his feet are still
Ere ever his knightly
spurs are won,
For his body was broken
and crushed and done
While yet he trudged to the first green hill.

O little shoes with the blood-stained toes,
O light gone out of a boyish face,
Was this the end of his splendid race?
Was this his City of
No-One-Knows?
